Information PRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. At an unspecified time in April 1955, a Soviet commission arrived at the Pirna-Sonnenstein seat of the Main Administration for Industrial Requirements. It was led by Marshal Lukin (fnu), who is said to have been responsible for the work assignments of the Junkers specialists during their stay in the USSR. 25X1
2. The commission is scheduled to stay in Germany and to check on the work of the Main Administration for Industrial Requirements. The commission is also responsible for work assignments to the aircraft specialists of this main administration. 25X1

Comment: It appears obvious that Lukin is identical with the marshal mentioned from a different source. 25X1
